Former Supreme Court Justice Arthur Goldberg yesterday urged Congress to cut off all funds for Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty and strengthen support for the Voice of America.

Goldberg told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that "Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty have outlived their usefulness."

He said the goal of providing information in Eastern European countries "would be better served" by the Voice of America, which he said "enjoys a good record of reporting facts in the tradition of our free press, radio and tel-
